THE GLOBE, TORONTO, FRIDAY, MAR

WOMAN

at work and at play

CONDUCTED BY SYBIL SKETCHLEY.

The family witnessed the ceremony which was conducted by the Rev. W. H. Hinkley. The bride was gowned in a travelling dress of blue cloth, relieved by an ornament of pearls, the gift of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Krebs left for a tour through the eastern Province. On their return they will reside at No. 31 Willcocks street, Toronto.

Mrs. Gibson held her fortnightly reception at Government House yesterday, the Misses Gibson also receiving in the drawing-room and tea-room, where the tables were bright with spring flowers and delicate ferns. His Honor was also present to greet the callers. Captain Young and Mr. Sidney Fellows were in attendance.

The pretty Greek Theatre of the Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression was filled to the doors last evening on the occasion of the Lenten annual recital given by Mrs. Scott Raff. The stage was charming in its artistic arrangement of simplest furniture and a great burnished bowl of flowers. Mrs. Scott Raff wore a rich dress of heavy satin of ivory tint, with glittering embroideries, and charmed her audience with her recitals in a varied programme, some delightful character studies were given, and "The Hour Glass," by Yeats, by special request. Mrs. Scott Raff was presented, with exquisite flowers during the evening, by her student friends. Miss Spencer played some charming piano solos between the numbers of the programme which was enjoyed, from first to last by the appreciative audience.

Should Canadian Women Vote?

As an interesting experiment to close with the correspondence of the last few weeks on the subject of "Votes for women," a number of Toronto ladies, prominent in women's work of various kinds, ranging from nursing to art and stir up public opinion for three years to have medical inspection of schools if we had the ballot? No, indeed, it would not have been necessary. Legislation could have been secured for compulsory inspection of schools months ago.

Florence G. Huestis
A Bit of History.

Dear Sybil Sketchley: The whole subject can be summed up in one word—Justice! Common Justice. Three special factors are working against the possibility of a sympathetic understanding of woman's position. The ignorance and misconception of the opponents to the vote for women is based on the false and moreover they announce with much self-glorification that they do not want to know anything about it. A ludicrous idea also obtains credence that the advocates of women's franchise are antagonistic to men, whereas the co-operation of men and women for the advancement and betterment of social conditions is the fundamental principle of this movement. Last, but not least, woman is woman's greatest enemy. It almost shatters one's faith in the cause to find the utter disloyalty of women towards women.

The popular arguments used in opposition to women's franchise equally apply to men, with the one exception, suggestion of the total eclipse of domestic life if women dare to think on public questions and make so bold as to register a vote.

Many thinking people are agreed that the present conditions of our civilization have, or will soon, become intolerable owing to the extension of the franchise to incompetent and illiterate men. To some this chaotic state of affairs apparently presents a conclusive reason why women should not have the vote. Because men in their wisdom have rendered a priceless gift valueless by placing it in the hands of utterly irresponsible men, they have attempted to rectify their disastrous mistake and adjust the balance by withholding the right of citizenship from a very large class of highly educated, highly trained, thoughtful women engaged in all the professions, teachers of the children, or occupying responsible positions in the industrial

THE SECRETARY'S NOTE BOOK

St. George's Chapter D. O. E.

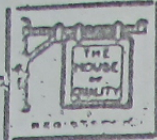

At the meeting of St. George's Chapter, Daughters of the Empire yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Ramsay Wright retired, and Mrs. John Cawthra was elected Regent for the coming year. Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Cawthra made graceful speeches. After the meeting Prof. Brett gave a very interesting lecture on present conditions in India, chiefly from the educational and religious point of view. Afternoon tea followed, and closed a very successful meeting. About seventy-five members were present.

Gymnastics and Dancing.

Haverhill College was last night the scene of the display of gymnastics, drill and dancing which has now become one of the annual events in the educational and social world of Toronto. A large and representative audience thoroughly enjoyed the whole programme. The work reflects the highest credit on the gymnastic mistress, Miss Pierce, who is a graduate of the Boston Normal School of Gymnastics. The President and Vice-President, Dr. N. W. Hoyle, the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Gibson, and Miss Gibson, Sir Charles Moss, Lady Moss, Professor Wrong, Ven. Archdeacon Cody and Mrs. Cody, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Lash, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis, Colonel and Mrs. Denison, Mrs. Gzowski, Mrs. Gordon Mackenzie, Principal and Mrs. Auden, Dr. Ellis, Mrs. Rudolph, Bishop and Mrs. Reeve, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Macdonald were among those present.

STUDENTS AT REHOBOAM

MAKING THEIR GRAND
MASONIC DEGREE MACWATT.

Pleasant Gathering Held in Temple Building—Prominent Educationists
Take Part in Lodge-room Ceremonies and at Notable Banquet.

That there will in time be a Masonic lodge in the city with the membership confined chiefly to the student body of the University of Toronto, was the very general opinion expressed last night after a notable gathering held in Temple Building under the auspices of Rehoboam Lodge. The lodge membership, which is now over the four hundred mark, and the visiting students and members of the faculty brought the total attendance up to nearly five hundred, all of whom were present to do honor to the Grand Master, Judge D. F. MacWatt of Sarnia, who came on an official visit. With the Grand Master were the Deputy Grand Master, Aubrey White, Toronto; the District Deputy, J. E. Francis, and V. W. Bros. H. T. Smith and Andrew Park.

The second degree was creditably exemplified with musical ritual, under the direction of the Worshipful Master, T. S. Young, after which there was a notable banquet. The chief toast of the evening, that of the Grand Master, was proposed by V. Wor. Bro. Andrew Park. W. Bro. C. W. Dill proposed the toast of the University of Toronto, and Bros. R. M. Edmandson, R. H. Johnston and Joseph Follett replied, testifying to the high reputation of Rehoboam Lodge as an entertainer. Among the prominent educationists present were Dr. Packenham, Prof. A. M. Mackenzie, Rev. J. Burwash, Rev. Prof. Reynar, Professor McIntyre, Prof. Hallam, Col. Hugh Clark, M.P.P., was also a guest of the evening.

Under the direction of W. Bro. Geo. H. Mitchell, a splendid musical programme was provided at the banquet, and the students took a prominent part in the evening's entertainment.

Music and Drama

CONDUCTED BY
E. R. PARKHURST.

Thos. F. Dean, well known in Toronto as the business manager last summer of the Toronto Baseball Club, and for several years past the manager on tour for David Belasco with the "Blanche Bates" Company, had a birthday anniversary yesterday, when he received many telegraphic greetings from his home in Baltimore and from theatrical friends in New York. Miss Bates celebrated the event with a supper party after the performance of "The Fighting Hope" at the Royal Alexandra, which was given in one of the private diningrooms at the St. Charles Hotel. In addition to the honor guest, Miss Bates' party included Mrs. Frank Meade of Cleveland, and Mrs. Rupert Hughes of New York, who are visiting Miss Bates this week at the King Edward Hotel. Among those from out of town were Mr. Alexander P. Moore of Pittsburg; Mr. John Everett Fay of Chicago, and Mr. Sidney Yardley of Ossining, N.Y. Miss Bates' guests from Toronto included the Hon. J. J. Foy, the Misses Foy, Mrs. James Foy, Mr. Eddy Foy, and Mr. Allan McIntosh. Miss Bates will entertain the same party at tea in the tea-room of the King Edward this afternoon.

The hall of the Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression was well filled last night by an appreciative audience, on the occasion of a recitation recital by Mrs. Scott Raff. The selections given were of a serious nature, and Mrs. Scott-Raff, who has a very musical voice and a pathetic timbre in its quality, touched the emotional susceptibilities of her audience. She gave studies by Carruth, Duncan, Masson, Carryll and Montague, and lyrics by Shelley, Browning, Tennyson and Keats. The audience applauded each number of her programme with enthusiasm. During the intermission, Miss Spencer, a pupil of Mr. Welsman, played two first movements of Beethoven's "Moonlight" sonata, with the suggestion of contemplative lament that suits the composition.

Miss Flora Chaloe of this city, the well-known operatic singer, formerly of Brown of Harvard Company and other New York successes, has been engaged for twenty weeks on the Wm. Morris circuit. On account of her being engaged to open at the American Music Hall, Chicago, next week, and Toronto being her home town, Mr. Morris decided to allow her the remainder of this week in this city at his Majestic Music Hall, as it was the only available time of her contract he could allot Toronto. Miss Chaloe being anxious to appear in her home town if only for a short time.

avenue yesterday evening one of the horses of truck No. 5 slipped on the pavement, breaking the tongue and injuring the horse slightly. A large number of row-boats and canoes in the boathouse were destroyed by the fire, the cause of which is not known. The damages amounted to about $1,700. Leaving there the firemen had to attend another fire in the part of the Darling building in the premises of the Hough Lithographing Company, 96 to 104 Spadina avenue. This proved to be nothing more than a pile of oil-soaked rags, which had ignited through spontaneous combustion.

On the way to a fire in an oil tank of the British American Oil Company at the foot of Cherry street in the morning, one of the trucks collided with a hose reel, smashing some of the ladders and one of the wheels. The oil in the tank burned itself out, doing little damage, except to the dry grass and rushes adjoining it in Ashbridge's Marsh, which burned for a long time and made a big blaze.

THEIR CLOSING EXERCISES.

Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression.

The closing exercises of the commencement programme of the Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression on Saturday afternoon were no less interesting and enthusiastic than the proceedings of the three previous days. Rev. Dr. F. Tracy spoke on "Interpretation, the True Expression," and Rev. Dr. Thomas Eakin delivered an address on "Art and Religion." A feature of the day was the report of the school during the year, read by Mrs. Emma Scott Raff, F.C.M., principal. "Nine years ago," she said, "the school was cradled in the university, and was launched with only five students. Today there are over two hundred on the books." Mrs. Scott Raff pointed out that a good deal of attention was given to elocution, which she described as "true conversation." They aimed at the mental, moral and physical training of the students. "The end and aim," said Mrs. Scott Raff, "of this training, is not to fit our students for the platform or the stage, but for life and for the home."

Those taking first place in the honor list were:—Grace E. Macartney, post graduate; Elsie M. Sanderson, senior year; Helen L. McFetridge, junior year. Normal course in physical training, Bessie Sanderson and Gertrude Hutchinson.

Prizes were awarded by the donors as follows:—Helen L. McFetridge, the Dorothy Raff optima prize; Elsie M. Sanderson, the Gerhard Heintzman, $10, punctuality; Gertrude Hutchinson, George G. Nasmith Ph.D., $10, physical training; Mrs. St. Germain, $10, interpretation.

Prayer was offered by the President, Rev. Nathaniel Burwash. A bright programme was presented by some of the pupils.

WAS KICKED IN THE FACE.

Charles Balsden Was Assaulted and Robbed on Duke Street.

Walking down Duke street yesterday afternoon with a friend, Charles Balsden was attacked by a man who sprang at him from a lane. His assailant knocked him down and kicked him in the face, then took several dollars from his pocket, and ran off. Balsden was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, where two stitches were put in a cut over his eye, inflicted by his assailant.

In the meantime, Mr. Balsden's friend had run for the police, and Arthur Reid, who gave no address, will have to be done on Saturday night. Hotelmen who have been suspected of Sunday selling when spoken to have made strenuous denial, arguing that if liquor has been sold it has been done without their knowledge. Now the inspectors are seeking the co-operation of the hotelmen, and any bartender who is found breaking the law hereafter will lose his bartender's license.

THE CITY PAYMASTERSHIP.

The Grading System Creates a Serious Difficulty.

The grading principle adopted last year by the City Council for civic employees is being put to a test in connection with the appointment of a successor to Mr. William Burton, the late paymaster. Mr. Norman Spears has been doing the work since the death of Mr. Burton, but a difficulty has arisen over his proposed permanent appointment. Under the grading system the position, if promotion is decided upon by City Treasurer Coady, would be expected to go to a first-class clerk and Mr. Spears is not in that grade.

There has been considerable discussion with a view of finding a way out of the difficulty and Mr. Coady is quoted as saying there is too much work for one man. The name of Mr. Joseph E. Thompson, until recently Industries Commissioner, and for years assistant to Mr. Burton, was last week mentioned in connection with the position, but it was said last night that he had no desire to re-enter the civic service.

MORE SMALLPOX CASES.

Majority of Cases in City at Present Among Newfoundlanders.

Three more smallpox cases have developed in this city. Two of these were in a Hallam street house which had been quarantined, and the other was in a house on Shaw street. The medical health department seem to think that more cases than necessary have developed because of the refusal of the people concerned to be vaccinated. The majority of the recent smallpox cases have been among people who have come to Toronto from Newfoundland. These have refused to be vaccinated.

A Big Fur Seizure.

Provincial Constable Symons has made a big seizure of fur skins at Whitelash Lake, in the Lake Superior district. The seizure includes otter, beaver and muskrat skins. There were 78 otter skins in the parcels seized, 165 beaver skins, and 1,180 muskrat skins. The total value of the seized goods is estimated at $3,740.

HENRY PELLATT HONORED.

Willoughby Bulloch, Secretary

latt was elected President of the or-has had a splendid reception at Britain. He and his wife to bear their share of the expenses of the Empire.

The Complaint of the French.

"Nationalism in Canada," said Dr.
Hincks, "grows out of a feeling that the great French race have not had a square deal under our present Constitution, and it is, therefore, the banding together of the French to get a more or less complete autonomy and to resist what they consider undue Imperialism. Quebec is claiming a local autonomy different from that of any of the other Provinces in Canada. This was the position of the southern States which ultimately led to the civil war. The danger of Nationalism is that it is already asking favors on race grounds and on creed grounds which, if granted to one race, must be granted to others, and then the Dominion will ultimately split up into infinitesimal racial units."

Not a Debatable Question.

A man's right to bear his share of the burden of Empire, no matter what his race or creed, was declared Dr.
Hincks, not even debatable. It was a matter above party, and no man should try to make a little party issue of such a great subject. Continuing, the preacher declared that local patriotism was the cradle of the higher love of Empire but local patriotism had to be rightly developed. This had not been done in Quebec, and he declared that from evidence in his possession the recent election in Artha-baska had been fought on the basis of hatred of Great Britain. In referring to Mr. Armand Lavergne's address here, Dr. Hincks said his accused Nationalism was as much like his campaign Nationalism as soap was like dynamite.

Toward the close of his address, Dr.
Hincks appealed for loyalty of heart, and declared that it should be taught

KATSER LIKES KNIGHT ENGINE.

German Emperor Has Ordered Two Cars—Mercedes and Panhard Cars Out With Knight Models.

The latest honor for the Knight motor announced by the automobile trade press is an order placed by Kaiser William, Emperor of Germany, for two new cars for spring delivery equipped with this famous engine. Emperor William has been driving a Knight motor for a year past, and has been so well pleased with it that he has decided to use it in 1911. Practically all the crowned heads of Europe are now said to be using the engine with the sliding valves.

The Panhard car in France, and the Mercedes car in Germany are attracting attention in European circles by the vigorous way they are getting after the Knight motor business. The Panhard people have recently produced a 25-horsepower model fitted with the Knight motor, the measurements of which are 3.9 inches by 5 1/4-inch stroke. Under recent brake tests this motor showed 23.5 horsepower at only 700 revolutions, 33.5 horsepower at 1,000 revolutions, and 40 horsepower at 1,250 revolutions. This is considered a very striking performance when the size of the cylinder is considered, but it is in line with the certified performances of the Knight-Bairner engines in their well-remembered tests by the Royal Automobile Club.

The Mercedes makers, who control the motor in Germany, are out with their Knight engine model, and are preparing for a heavy business. Their exhibit was a feature of London's recent Auto Show at Olympia. At this show also the Bairner Company of England exhibited all models with Knight motors, the Birnka Company of Germany exhibited the Knight-Bairner model, and the Panhard Company showed their first Knight engine model, and the Hoyer Company of England presented two models.

RECITAL BY PUPILS.

The recital by pupils of the pianoforte department (senior and postgraduate grades) in the Conservatory Music Hall on Saturday afternoon, December 3, proved an unusually interesting and attractive event. The opening number on the program was Chopin's "Etude de Concert," Op.
25, otherwise known as "Antonia," a beautifully descriptive composition most artistically interpreted by Miss Irene Weaver, pupil of Miss Eugenia Quacken. Miss Emma Ferguson, pupil of Mr. W. J. McNally, next contributed two striking novelties, Debussy's "Prelude" in E, and "Nocturne," by Schubert, for left hand only, followed by Chopin's brilliant et d'at study, Op.
10, No. 5. The charm of these three delightful numbers was gracefully and adequately rendered by Mr. McNally's talented and promising pupil, Mr.
George Hesse, pupil of Mr. J. W.
Harrison, who heard in Chopin's difficult and dramatically colored et minor "Ballade," in which the young artist revealed much latent power, mastery of technical effects, and much sympathy with the composer's ideas. Miss Florence G. Spencer, A. T. C. M., pupil of Mr. Frank S. Welman, gave "Trio Memento Musiciens," by Moszkowski, in a most finished and brilliant manner, evincing a high degree of technical skill and great ease and delicacy.
Miss Mary Morley, A. T. C. M., Miss Mabel F. Boddy, A. T. C. M., pupils of Dr. Edward Fisher, were heard respectively in Chopin's interesting
"Fantaisie," and Schytte's "Sonata," Op. 53, the last named selection bringing the program to a close. Both pupils of Dr. Fisher again demonstrated their undoubted gifts as pianists of a high grade of ability, in phrasing, touch, tone and execution, alike accurate, confident and pleasing. The recital was well attended and gave evidence of the marked high standard attained by pupils of the institution.

MRS. SCOTT RAFF'S RECITAL.

Mrs. Scott Raff's interpretative recital in the Margaret Eaton School of Expression last Saturday evening attracted a large and cultivated audience, who gave the artist an enthusiastic reception. Mrs. Scott Raff is well known for her painstaking and careful work as head of the Eaton institution, and her program on this occasion only served to illustrate more vividly the inimitable powers of one who aims at elevatory perfection.
Mrs. Raff's program was well arranged and on the whole attractive. Her initial series of stories comprised "The Revolt of Mother" (Wilkins), "A Woman's Rose" (Thackeray), and two strike-ing numbers from Kipling's pen. In W. H. Years' dramatic lyric, "The Shadowy Waters," Mrs. Raff's ability as an interpreter was demonstrated in an uncertain manner, the indifferent music suggestive of Fauré's magic harp being realistic in its appeal. The "Toronto String Quartet" added to the excellence of the program with a delicate and beautiful rendering of an arrangement of Schumann's "Aben-der," in which the viola solo was played by Mr. Frank Smith with artistic understanding and velvety quality of tone. They also produced some lovely ensemble effects in Svanen's fascinating duet, a fact the audience did not fail to appreciate warmly.
The feature of the second part of the program was Mrs. Raff's presentation of the Greek drama "Iphigenia," assisted by the school players and Miss Dora Maynor and Mr. Basil Morgan.

AT WALMER ROAD CHURCH.

The organ recital in Walmer Road Baptist Church on Saturday afternoon last was well attended. Mr. W.
F. Pickard, the organist, presented a program drawn from the works of Bach, Franz, Wablenholme, Dvorak and others. Perhaps, however, in these Societies in a far more the organist achieved his best effort, his execution being exceptionally brilliant despite its technical difficulties. The assisting vocalist, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, contributed two numbers in excellent voice and with devotional utterance.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC RECITAL.

The following program was given by pupils of Dr. Torrington, on Saturday afternoon, at the College: Piano

Government House, Ottawa, are issued by their Excellencies.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster, Edmonton, announce the engagement of their daughter Edith to Mr. D. R. Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Haines of St. Mary's.

Mrs. J. W. Marks gave a pleasant afternoon tea yesterday at the New Galleries for Miss Dorothy Marks, when the pretty room was full of guests upstairs and down.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacKay, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet Stewart, to Mrs. Charles Arthur Jarvis, Kansas City, Mo. Marriage to take place on December 28.

The marriage of Miss Alice Elver Austin, daughter of the late Rev. H. Austin, Gananoque, to Mr. Frank Richardson Burgess of Ottawa, is announced to take place in Toronto on December 28.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude McKee, daughter of Mrs. M. J. McKee, Glanville, to Mr. Gerald Beatty Tufford, eldest son of the late Walter E. Tufford of Beamsville, is announced to take place on January 14.

The marriage of Miss Margaret MacVannell, daughter of the late Peter MacVannell and of Mrs. John Vannell of St. Mary's, to Mr. John Alexander Miles of Toronto, will take place quietly at St. Mary's on December 28.

The engagement is announced of Miss Esther Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McClellan, Whitby, Ont., to Mr. John S. Thomson of Malden, Sask. The marriage will take place on Wednesday, December 31st, at Whitby.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Williamson, Port Hope, will celebrate their golden wedding on Monday evening, by a large dinner party to family and friends. Guests will be present from Milwaukee, Toronto, Peterboro', Port Hope and other places.

The reception held by Mrs. G. W. Reed, Highton, yesterday, was largely attended. Mrs. Reed wore a pale blue silk, receiving in the large drawing-room. In the tea-room the decorations included red and white roses. Mrs. Farquharson poured the tea and Mrs. Wallener and Miss Cocking assisted.

The dance to be given by the Toronto Hunt Polo Club on January 9 promises to be a most successful one. It will be a reunion of the members of the Hunt Club since the disastrous fire overtook that very delightful resort, and Mr. H. A. Osborne with his committee are working hard to make it a brilliant affair.

Mrs. George Dickson and Miss MacDonald gave a pleasant at-home and dance at St. Margaret's College last evening. A pretty miscellaneous program was presented, and the big rooms and corridors were thrown open for the promenaders who enjoyed the evening amidst a throng of guests who filled the college corridors and rooms.

A quiet but pretty wedding was celebrated in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Guelph, when Miss Ellen Gertrude Lowry, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Lowry, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Fanning. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. W. G. Wilson in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride is well-known in musical circles, not only in Guelph, but also in Toronto, where she was for some time contralto soloist in the Church of the Redeemer, and a teacher in Haverhill Ladies' College.

Madame Sembrich presented a varied program indeed last evening to a big, foreign and music-loving audience, singing in no less than five languages, and looking remarkably well and youthful in a splendid gown of dark blue satin veiled completely in sparkling embroidered tulle, with a deep band of eighteen inches of beautifully wrought dull gold and jewelled embroidery, continued on the simple square-cut corseage, which was finished with a touch of pale blue repeated on the front of the skirt; some magnificent jewels were also worn, a triple chain of pearls caught in the middle, with a big diamond clasp; the pretty collar had a narrow band of glittering leaves set with diamonds and turquoise twisted in and out of the waves, which was most becoming to the great artist, who was recalled again and again.

Mrs. H. D. Warren gave a charming dance last evening at her residence, "Red Gables," Wellesley street. Mrs.

The Girl Student

May every girl student have a jolly home visit and the brightest Christmas to look back upon, when she once more returns to us. Much an early wish must be expressed if the girl students see it before their departure, as the closing of all colleges and schools for Christmas holidays is now taking place. These last days are filled with "exams," shopping and packing so there is not much of interest to record in the column. I should like every girl to remember all the incidents of the home visit and to give a thought to how much her spirit has been attuned to finer appreciation through the development of her mind.

If she feels a stirring of superiority or disinclination for the simpler pleasures of those who may be making sacrifices for her, then she is not receiving the inspiration and enthusiasm that higher education should instill.

The farther we travel along the road of superior knowledge the more we should observe the grandeur of simplicity.

A sweet and wholesome development of mind instinctively appreciates the grandeur of simplicity without always realizing the degree of the truth and beauty so embodied. When acute perception is arrived at and the inner sympathetic spirit responds to the unselfish effort of the individual without dwelling on the crudities of the external, then the mind has indeed been nobly developed.

Maria.

Dear Maria.—Have you ever noticed how often the unconscious word or act of the passerby stirs some forgotten or neglected chord and leaves us richer for the meeting? The other evening, running downtown, we saw a girl and a man enter the car at one of the transfer corners. She was one of those girls with a sweet yet strong face, soft understanding eyes, her soft curls under the white fur of her hood, the long red cloak and white fox fur made a picture not easily forgotten. Across from her sat a young woman, who might have been a sister, in her arms she carried a sleeping baby a few months old, at her left side a lass of perhaps three leaned sleepily against her mother, on the right a boy of five was far in the land of dreams. The girl looked across and smiled, the woman smiled back, and then—her eyes filled and her lips trembled. Instantly, the girl crossed the car, a moment later she rang the bell and, stooping, gathered up the sleeping girlie, while the man carried the boy. As they left the car together the conductor waited patiently until all were off and the old gentleman at the front of the car smiled as he wiped his glasses.

COMEDIES BY STUDENTS.

Comedies by the students of the Margaret Eaton School of Literature and Expression were given on Thursday evening before a large audience. Those taking part in the first, "The Piper's Pay," by Margaret Cameron, were Miss Cecil McLaughlin, Miss Mary Adams, Miss Violet Wilson, Miss Ida Modeland, Miss Lona Blong, Miss Marcia Kammerer and Miss Margaret Adams. In "A String of Pearls," by Claire Wallace Flynn, were Mr. Basil G. Morgan, Miss Lucy Rose, Miss K. Peasey, Miss Olive Hett, Miss Cora Gould, and Mr. Vernon C. Kachle. "Obstetrics," adapted from the German by Anne Peacock, was admirably done by Mr. Geo. R. S. Fleming, Miss Dora Mavor, Mr. Basil G. Morgan, Miss Emma Vaux, Mr. C. H. Devine and Mrs. C. E. Hurden.

Club Comment

A spirited and amusing debate took place at the May Court Club in Ottawa, when the young lady members maintained an earnest discussion on both sides of the question: "Resolved, that competition between woman and man in industrial and professional worlds is a social menace." Miss Elsie Ritchie and Miss Alice Lamothé, on the affirmative, defeated Miss Answers to Queries.

THOMAS E. N.—According to the statement in your letter, the article should have been returned to you by the police at the expiration of three months. Of course, I am unaware of the existing laws in your town, but in Toronto the police department sends out a card notifying the finder that the owner has been located and the article given into his possession. Or, if otherwise, the finder receives a communication to call and get the article, as it remains unidentified. This is within a period of three months, and no doubt if you report the case to the Provincial Department it will be looked into. As you advertised, giving full name and address, there seems to be no reason why the police should have taken possession of it in the first place; however, enough time has elapsed since the occurrence to entitle you to receive it again.
